

Why join the Long Island Business Teachers Association?

You can join LIBTA year round!

LIBTA members are high school business teachers, business education administrators and other business education supporters in Nassau and Suffolk Counties in New York State. LIBTA hosts two general membership meetings per year and promotes the communication and cooperation of business department teachers throughout Long Island.

- ✓ Professional Support and Networking
- ✓ Semi-annual Membership Meetings
- ✓ Student Scholarships
- ✓ Student Contests
- ✓ Professional Field Trips
- ✓ Lesson Plans
- ✓ Annual Spring Meeting and Luncheon Awards
- ✓ Contacts with Publishing, Business, and Industry Professionals
- ✓ BTANYS Discounts
- ✓ Updates from NY State Education Department
- ✓ Promote Business Education
- ✓ Professional Development Workshops

LIBTA encourages high school students to further their education by enrolling in business classes and joining the New York State Business and Marketing Honor Society. More details on the Business Honor Society can be found on our website at www.longislandbta.org. LIBTA is actively involved in the Business Teachers Association of New York State.

LIBTA hosts an annual competition of high school students in the spring at Commack High School where the students can demonstrate their knowledge and creativity in a variety of course related contests. Winners are awarded plaques and honored at a luncheon in May.

Long Island
Business Teachers Association

~ Excellence in Business Education ~

www.longislandbta.org